HIL stepped ahead, started operation in Assam, Punjab and Rajasthan

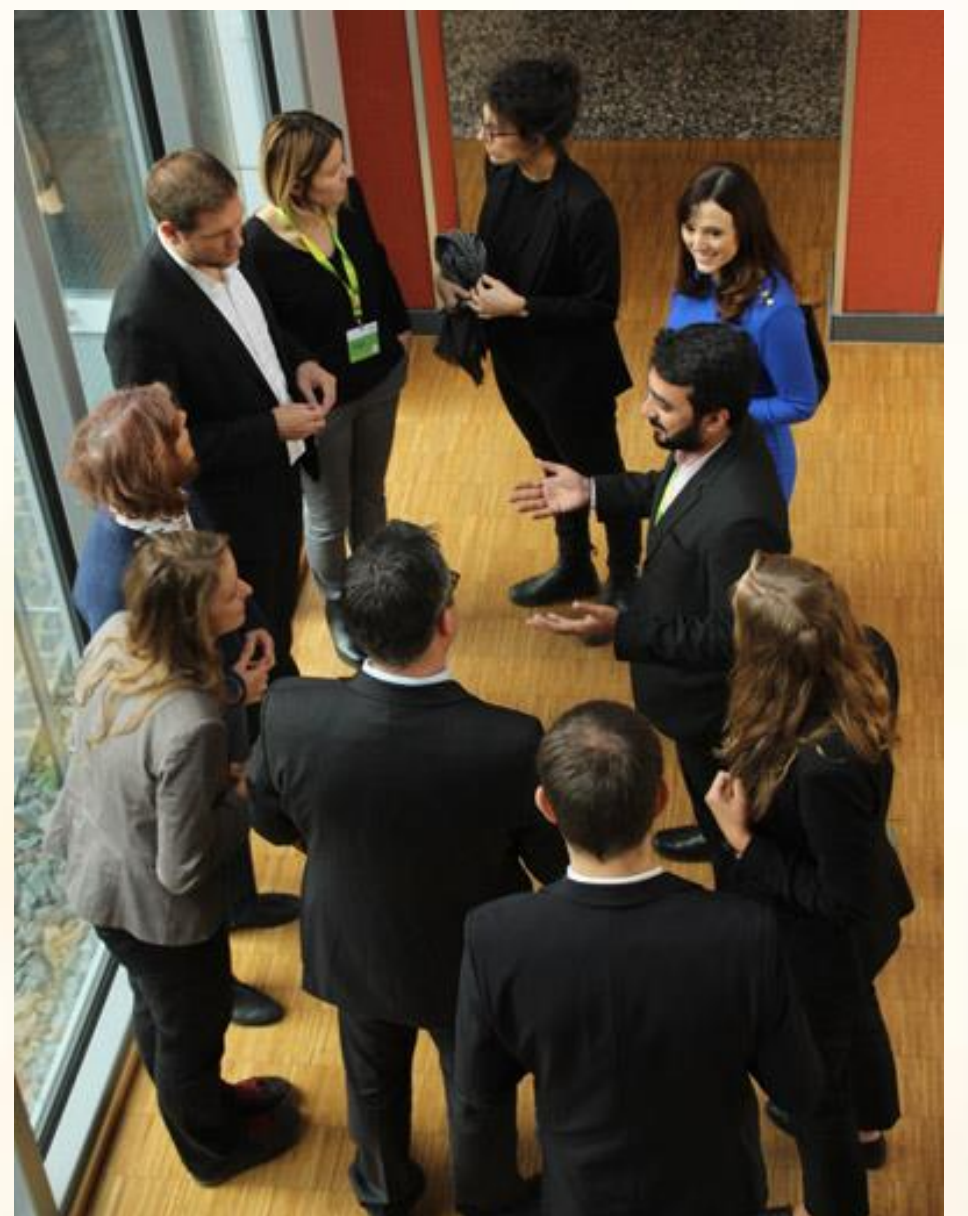

Annapurna had recently rolled out HIL operations in Bathinda, Udaipur, Jhunjhunu & Dibrugarh zones. For inculcating knowledge about the product and its process involving credit, legal & technical aspects, an in-house training program was organized at various clusters for operations & appraisal staff. Training was imparted to branches that were high potential in terms of demand for the product, branch vintage with larger client outreach.

Ram Krishna Atre, Head, Product attended Winter Leadership Academy of Frankfurt School of Finance and Management

Ram Krishna Atre, Head, Product took part in the Winter Leadership Academy of Frankfurt School of Finance and Management, through scholarship by GLS bank at the beginning of December. Mr. Atre was one of the winners of the Technical Assistance Program of the GLS Microfinance Fund and as a reward, he got the opportunity to take part in the Academy. The Leadership Winter Academy is a 5-day training course at Frankfurt School with interactive lectures, group discussions, role plays, case studies and selected evening activities. It has a practical focus and includes technical tools which are easy to apply to real-life situations.

Mr. Atre shared his rich experiences with success stories in order to give some insight of microfinance industry and role of Annapurna Finance in reaching the low-income groups of rural India and providing small loans that give people access to income generating activities, safe water, medicines, clean toilets etc.
